

Navigating an Ongoing Mental Health Crisis in Students

K-12 students continue to experience challenges related to mental health

OVER THE PAST FIVE YEARS (2018-2023)

Student Safety Incidents on the Rise

Explore the data

Gaggle has Issued

98,611

Possible Students Situation (PSS) alerts

A Possible Student Situation (PSS) indicates an imminent threat to a student or students that requires immediate intervention. Of those:

43,579

were related to suicide/self-harm

22,438

were related to violence against others

5,790

student lives were estimated to be saved with these timely alerts

Districts across the U.S. have partnered with Gaggle to be kept aware and help reduce safety-related incidents.

2,491

suicide notes

were discovered between the 2018-2023 school years.

887,839

pieces of concerning content were blocked between the 2018-2023 school years.

2,305

incidents involving images of firearms.

were flagged during the 2022-2023 school year. 106 were classified as PSS incidents.

Mental Health Support

Gaggle SpeakUp:

our team of safety experts work around the clock to evaluate student safety concerns reported through our tipline. If a tip reveals a threat to student safety or well-being, Gaggle will alert the designated district contacts immediately.

Gaggle Therapy & Coaching:

support for student and staff mental health through ongoing teletherapy and mental health coaching sessions. Since its inception, nearly 20,000 sessions have been completed.

Gaggle ReachOut:

allows students to reach out via text, phone, or live chat and connect with a trained crisis counselor immediately. Our crisis counselors provide live, human support to students and inform the district of the issue the very next day.

Gaggle's mission is to ensure the safety and well-being of students and schools by leveraging people and technology. Let us help you create a safe learning environment for your students.